YOUTH DEVELOPMENT INITIATIVES (YDI)

This comprehensive, co-educational intergenerational youth development program serves youths ages 10 -18, with a special emphasis on recruitment and intake of youth at the sixth-grade level. It is designed to promote health and wellness, build self-esteem, develop leadership skills and master competencies that foster success in school, the community and ultimately in life.

- Educational development
- Academic lab – the setting for tutorial sessions, mentoring, computer literacy and homework – will be conducted weekly. Tutoring will be offered Tuesday and Wednesday nights from 5:30 - 7 p.m. at the North Greenwood Library.
- On Thursday nights, program members meet with parents to communicate academic updates, attendance and homework and behavior checks from the school portal for their children in the school system. They offer strategies that will assist parents in helping children stay on the path to academic success.
- Program tutors are professionals who are provided by the Advanced Learning Center.
- For more information, visit pinell-saydi.org, or call 442-5550.
